

Programming for Business – BFT- 2A, 2C, 2D (Spring 2026)

Assessment No. 1

Roll No.: _____ Student Name: _____

1. Can you print the following text using one 'print' function (Jupyter notebook)?

```
Output: One, 'two', "three", four, \five\
Once, 'I'
Caught a fish
        '//alive\\'
```

2. Which of the following is a valid variable name in Python?

Circle or mark the correct answer.

- a. 2nd_value
- b. _mylist
- c. sum
- d. var-name

3. What will be the output of the following Python code?

Circle or mark the correct answer.

```
print("Hello", "world", sep= "- ", end= "!")
```

- a. Hello- World!
- b. Hello World!
- c. Hello-World
- d. Hello-World!

4. Write a Python script that (Jupyter notebook):

1. Creates three variables x, y and z.

- a. Assign x the value of 10.
- b. Assign y the value of 3.
- c. Assign z the result of multiplying x by y.

2. Print the result of z.

3. Create a variable length with a value of 2, and another variable width with a value of 5.
4. Calculate the perimeter of a rectangle using $2 * (\text{length} + \text{width})$ and store it in a variable named perimeter.
5. Print the value of perimeter.