Class policies

- Please note that any exception for one student is unfair to all other students, so don't expect any.
- Please turn off and store away cell phones, iPads, laptops, and other electronic devices.
- Talking during lecture is not permitted. It is disrespectful and disruptive to other class members and the instructor.

Attendance policy

Attendance has been allocated 5% of the total marks to be distributed as per the below policy.

1. Each a (absent) will result in a deduction of 1 mark while each l (late) will result in a deduction of 0.5 marks each. However, a student is allowed a maximum of one absent (a) and one late (l) without any penalty.

Scholastic dishonesty

In the lab and all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of scholastic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates. Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give an unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Students who violate these rules on scholastic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course/lab and/or dismissal from the university. Since dishonesty harms the individual, all students, and the integrity of the university, policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly and actively enforced. In addition, any sort of misbehaviour or arguments with the teaching assistants will also result in serious consequences.
